

FISCAL NOTE

HB 815 - SB 1310

February 13, 2001

SUMMARY OF BILL: Changes the manner in which the State Election Commission is selected. The bill provides that the majority party and the minority party in the general assembly would elect two members each. These four members would then select the remaining member who would not be representative of a political party.

Currently, the majority part in the general assembly elects three members of the state election commission, while the minority party elects two members.
